

KELLY HITZING:

Kelly Hitzing is a Florida native with a background in graphic design and studio art. While living in New York City, she developed an interest in the design of public space that led her to pursue a graduate degree in Landscape Architecture at the University of Virginia. After working in various landscape architectural firms around the US, she was drawn back to South Florida subtropical plant palette and year round sunshine. She has experience with domestic and international projects of all scales and types – from high end waterfront residential to master planning entire islands in the Caribbean. Kelly joined the Savino & Miller Design Studio to pursue sustainable projects in the public realm that are part of the solution for sea level rise in Miami.
